

A SERIOUS CASE Of Catarrhal Dyspepsia. Cured.

LEONARD F. VERDERY, Real Estate and Renting Agent, of Augusta, Ga., writes:

"With many others I want to add my testimony to the wonderful good results has done me. I have been a great sufferer from catarrhal dyspepsia, a tried many physicians, visited a good many Springs, but I believe Peruna has done more for me than all of the above put together. I feel like a new person. I have taken the Peruna and Manalin together and always expect to have a bottle in my home."—LEONARD F. VERDERY.

Congressman D. B. Dwyer of West Virginia. Congressman B. B. Dwyer, from West Virginia, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says: "I join with my colleagues in the House of Representatives in recommending your excellent remedy, Peruna, as a good tonic, and also an effective cure for catarrh."

Catarrh assumes different phases in different seasons of the year. In the summer the stomach and bowels suffer the most often as the seat of the trouble. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

From the reports in the daily papers it seems that H. C. Ardington is a trial for several places in the M. S. U. football team. At first they played him at full back and now he is being tried at half back. They may yet find that he is his best position, but it is certain that he will have a place on the team.

Cards have been received by friends here announcing the marriage of Miss Martha Louise Denham to Mr. James M. McGregor, on September 16th, at Rockport, Mo. Miss Denham was teacher of vocal music at Baptist College a year or two ago and had many friends and admirers here.

Part of a four deck headline in the Kansas City Journal, of Wednesday, reads: "In a joint debate, Bailey and Craddock got together. Challenge promptly accepted." It was gratifying to find in the reading matter below that these gentlemen had not had a fight in a Kansas joint nor even engaged in a competitive drinking bout. But there never is any telling about Kansas.

The famous original Gentry show, composed of the largest herd of hand-some dogs, intelligent ponies, comical monkeys and sagacious baby elephants, ever seen, will soon visit this city. The exhibition this season is nearly twice as large as on its former visit here, and it is now classed as the largest as well as the best show of its kind in the world. In fact the Gentry Brothers have a monopoly on this sort of entertainment. This is the fifteenth year of the attraction's continued prosperity, and in its reconstructed form it is vastly superior in its many departments. The show will exhibit in this city, afternoon and night, Wednesday, October 1st.

"When the Bell Tolls," which will be produced here at the Grand, on next Wednesday night, stands alone in the romantic line of modern sensational melodramas. The country made famous by William Tell, with its picturesque chateaux, historical castles and notable mountains covered with eternal snow, has not been hitherto utilized by the busy playwright and Mr. Travers-Vale is fortunate in seizing upon beautiful Switzerland as the home of his successful play. From a literary standpoint, "When the Bell Tolls" is unusually strong, while the intensely exciting situations are stirring even for the most blasé theater-goer.

Lynching not Sectional.

Alonso Tucker, a negro, who attacked a white woman near Libby, Oregon last week, was taken to jail and was afterwards released by the officers to save him from a lynching. The mob caught him however and hung him to a bridge. It was broad day light and no one was masked. And Oregon is not a southern state.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss McKie Young, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Young, and Mr. Arthur B. Crozier, of New York City. The marriage will take place at the young lady's home, eight miles southeast of Lexington. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Crozier, brother of the groom. The attendants will be, Miss Carrie Barnett, Miss Elizabeth Linkford, Mr. P. C. Young and Mr. Carl Rarigott.

Miss Young is one of the largest, oldest and most influential families in the county, and her friends are countless. For them there will be a touch of sadness about her marriage, since it will involve her removal to a distant home. May happiness and prosperity accompany her.

B. and L. Statement.

Attention is called to the semi-annual statement of the Lexington Building and Loan Association published in this issue. It has been managed with remarkable economy, care, and success. It may be fairly said to be benevolent in its aims. It has enabled many people to own homes who could never have done so in any other way. It has promoted the growth and upbuilding of the town. It has furnished a safe and suitable investment for wage earners and has promoted thrift and economy in many of our young people. The officers have been faithful, especially the secretary, who has given his energies to it as to a labor of love.

May Annex Hayti

There is a rumor in Washington that this government will soon serve notice on Hayti to restore peace and safe government to the island before October 1, or it will be annexed to the United States. The population consists of 700,000 negroes and 50,000 whites and half-breeds. There is revolution in the island nearly all the time. It is one of the most fertile parts of the world, but the population is thrifless and the country undeveloped. In size it is about equal to the state of Kentucky.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

C. W. Landis, porter for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, dead I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposed' of my bottle I was cured entirely. I am telling the truth too." 25c, 50c and $1 at Crenshaw & Young's. 9-6ml.

Charles Marshall Dead.

Charles Marshall formerly of Mayview, was killed at Valle Mines, Mo., September 20. He was the station agent and was engaged in pumping water for the tank. The pump was run by a small gasoline engine. In some way he was caught in the machinery and had his legs broken. He died in a short while from the injuries. He was brought to Mayview, where he was buried Sunday. He was a son of R. P. Marshall, of near Mayview, and a nephew of J. L. Marshall, of near Lexington.
